Mrs. Thompson Succumbs to Bullet Wounds

Mrs. Mary Thompson, 47, of 2624 Carson street, Torrance, who was shot in the neck at her home on November 7, succumbed to her injuries at the Torrance Memorial Hospital last Tuesday, November 15.

Physicians were unable to extract the bullet because of her extremely critical condition, it was reported. The injury left her paralyzed from the shoulders down, according to reports given to the police department.

The fatal bullet was fired by Arthur W. Weinert, 51, and was intended for his divorced wife, Mrs. Ethel Worden, niece of Mrs. Thompson, who peered through the partly opened door.

When he came to the house Mrs. Thompson induced Weinert to give her his gun. She emptied it of shells and allowed him to enter. When he arose to depart Mrs. Thompson followed him to the porch and returned the weapon. The shooting followed, Weinert then committed suicide.

Funeral services for Mrs. Thompson will be held at the Stone & Myers chapel this afternoon.

Northrop R. C. Beats Frenchy's Cafe Nine, 13-3

By GEORGE PESNER

By the fifth inning Frenchie's Cafe ds much as conceded victory to the Northrop boys last Sunday when it was agreed to shorten the game to seven innings instead of the usual nine. The score was then 13 to 3 and that was the final score when the game was over.

Helpless before the slants of Jumbo Niles, ace hurler of the N.R.C., the Frenchie's Cafe nine gathered only five hits. John La Franco who did a grand job of catching, also contributed a double with the bases loaded.

The big gun for the day was Marion (Blowery) Kubiak, who collected four hits for four times at bat. One of them a home-run, which cleared the fence at 350-foot mark. Bud Hicks, Northrop's peppery shortstop, got three consecutive doubles.

This coming Sunday the N.R.C. will play host to the strong Consolidated Steel team at Torrance. Game starts at 2:15 p.m.

Townsend Club No 1

By BETH PAIGE

Why eat at home tomorrow night when you can step into our hall on Cravens ave., opposite the library and get a "point-luck" dinner for so little; and can make it even less by bringing along one covered dish of your own cooking and enjoy a jovial meal along with us?

Games and dancing later. Everybody welcome.

Last Friday night we had an other surprise when our kind-hearted cook favored us with lots of dandy fingerbread which disappeared like dew before the sun.

Torrance Flyer Has Desire for U.S. Malted Milk

Capt. Carroll Joe Bender, Torrance, whose successful missions over Africa and Europe in his Flying Fortress "Taru" and its many successors, which he calls "Taru Substitute," have rewarded him with the air medal.

Two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Silver Star, and Distinguished Flying Cross, has written his mother, Mrs. William M. Hatt of 21502 Berendo st., Torrance, that he longs for just one Christmas gift and he knows he won't get it, and that is an American malted milk.

He relates in his letter that his three great desires, besides being home, are glass of milk, a fresh egg and a fresh tomato.

He adds that sugar is almost unknown in England and milk and fresh vegetables are very scarce. He says girls working in war plants toil 12 1/2 hours per day and are glad to do it to help win the war.

The original "Taru" has long since gone to the scrap heap but has been replaced by others. He relates of making one landing when his landing gear had been shot away and not one member of his crew was injured.

What was, left of the Fortress was used for spare parts, he said.

Torrance High Beats Gardena By 12-6 Score

The Torrance football team won its first game of the season last Thursday when Coach Winfield's "Red Boys" dumped over Gardena's "Greens" to the tune of 12 to 6.

Gardena kicked to Torrance, on second down, Torrance fumbled, Gardena recovering the ball but no yardage, so the Tartars came in possession of the pigskin again, but the Torrance lads couldn't make a first down. Torrance punted to Gardena. Gardena's ball. A short pass was thrown and Gordon Smith intercepted only to make a fumble again and Intermitt of Torrance receivers. Torrance punts on last down. A Gardena man catches it but fumbles as Dominguez of the Torrance team recovers. On the first down Intermitt shoots a long pass, Robst makes a beautiful catch and carries the ball over the goal line for the first touchdown of the game.

Gardena loses possession of the ball once more, this time on the Tartars' 30-yard line. Gordon Smith passed to Massie for the second touchdown for the Tartars.

Torrance then kicked to Gardena, making no yardage on the last three plays. Gardena punts and Torrance held the ball until the gun ended the first half.

The Tartars kicked off. Gardena made no headway in its last four downs. Torrance gained the ball and also made no gain on the last four downs. Then Gardena got hold of the ball and pushed it over the line, which made the score 12 to 6.

The last quarter developed into a nip and tuck struggle with no scores. At the very last minute the Tartars had the ball on Gardena's 15-yard line. There it was when the gun was fired ending the game.
